Pastor's Ponderings

Worship During the COVID Virus

After weeks of not having in person worship, the church is now open for corporate worship. Thank you to the Session and the Trustees for establishing guidelines for a safe reopening.

Studies show that almost half of Christians in the United States have not worshipped in the church to which they belong in over seventeen weeks. Almost a quarter of American Christians are worshipping with other churches than the one to which they belong.

People throughout the country are checking out virtual services of other churches. I believe this virus will have a lasting effect in that congregations must have a positive presence online if they are to survive. Fortunately, we have hundreds of people hearing Sunday's music.

Our own congregation has made great strides in online worship in a very short time. Each week we improve the virtual services that are being live streamed on Facebook and YouTube. We are also looking forward to having a new website which will greatly improve the accessibility and quality. Furthermore, we are exploring ways to hear Megan's prerecorded solo's not only online but also during Sunday worship.

For the present, worship is very different. Your temperature is taken. Your attendance is registered. We wear masks. Worship has no singing or responsive readings. We do have the passing of the peace but it is done as a wave from a distance. There is also no coffee hour.

During this quarantine we are realizing that worship is not just a once a week experience on Sunday mornings. Worship is a way of life. We worship God when we start each day by giving thanks for our many blessings. We worship the Lord when we appreciate and care for creation. We also worship God when we love one another.

One great practice is to begin each day by reading a Psalm or a passage from Proverbs. Psalm 143:8 states, "Let the mourning bring me word of Your unfailing love, for I have put my trust in You. Show me the way I should go, for to You I entrust my life."

It has been months since I have been able to end my messages with my traditional salutation but I am grateful I can now say once again,

See you in church,

Electronic statements: With the computer input of our giving, the church is posed to send statements electronically by email – this will help decrease our spending for postage. If you currently do not receive your quarterly statement by email and wish to receive it through email, please contact Linda Bracht at firstprespy211@yahoo.com. Otherwise, the church office will distribute computer-generated quarterly statements during service for the first two Sundays after each quarter; those not distributed will then be mailed.

News from the Presbyterian Women

We have canceled our Spring Rummage sale which was rescheduled to June 12th – the new date is now May/June 2021. Sandy will chair this event.

We have canceled our Chicken BBQ at Oak Hill.

September:

- September 8th we will clean the kitchen.
- Joy will host our Fall Picnic at her cottage late in the month – date to be determined.

December 8th is the date for our Advent Evening with chairs Jean and Char.

Celebration of life chairs remain the same – the list is on the kitchen bulletin board. Committee chairs remain the same.

Miracle Cloths: The Presbyterian Women are selling streak-free microfiber Miracle Cloths as a fundraiser – $5.00 for each cloth. The cloth fiber is a special yarn that is strong and is virtually lint-free - it does not damage any surface. The fibers grab and hold dirt, dust and grime - tough on dirt and gentle on surface - these cloths are GREAT for cleaning windows and almost anything else. Please see Sandy Carlson.

News from the Worship and Music Committee

Live streaming of service on Facebook – We are continuing the live-streaming on Facebook of our Sunday church service, and then the service is posted on YouTube.

In-Person service: We are also offering in-person Sunday church service at our usual time of 10 AM. The service will be different in that:

- The service will be approximately 40 minutes as a safety precaution. While there is live-streaming with one camera, the pastor will perform the service from the communion table; once we have more cameras, the pastor will perform the service from the pulpit. There will be no layreaders.
- Because all windows and doors will be as open as possible to increase ventilation, please dress accordingly.
- There must be no more than 41 people in the sanctuary at one time.
- Everyone must wear a mask at all times, covering their nose and mouth with the exception of the Pastor during service, and with the exception of taking communion; this includes but is not limited to cloth-based face coverings and disposable masks - we will have masks available if you do not have one.
- Every 'household' must maintain a 6 foot distance from other households.

- Every person must hand sanitize before entering the building – we will have hand sanitizers at the building entrance.
- All pew cushions have been removed.
- An usher will meet attendees at the door to the sanctuary, record the name (also address and phone number if a visitor), take/record the person's temperature and ask if they have symptoms (Y/N). If anyone has any symptoms following the service, Pastor Paul must be contacted.
- In the sanctuary, there are directional arrows to maintain traffic patterns – all household members must enter the sanctuary through the usual door, then be escorted up the center aisle by an usher with seating starting at the front pulpit pew; once the pulpit side is filled, all household members are escorted up the center aisle with seating starting at the front choir-side pew. Exit following service is out the pulpit front door for those seated on the pulpit side, starting with the first row; for those seated on the choir side, exit down the far-right aisle starting with the back row, out the foyer door and out the main front door.
- Ushers will place the appropriate number of bulletins in the seating area as he/she is escorting a household to a seating area.
- If you wish to share a prayer or joy and/or concern, please call the church office (leave a message if no one answers) or email Pastor Paul
- There will be no choir or singing of hymns.
- There will be no hand shaking or laying-on of hands across households during the benediction.
- There will be no passing of the collection plate or 2 cents a meal boxes – a plate and box will be available on both tables behind the last pew on either side, and on the table near the pulpit exit door.
- There will be no Sunday school or nursery
- All Bibles, hymnals and other papers are removed from the pews; you are welcome to bring your own Bible.
- Please exit the building immediately after service – if you want to stop and speak with others, please do so outside in the parking lot. There will be no fellowship/coffee hour in Crosier Hall until further notice.

Communion: For those live-streaming the service, you are welcome to have your own communion elements available; for those attending the in-person service, prepackaged bread and pre-poured juice is available in disposable containers (please dispose of them in the provided trash can as you exit the building).

Choir: Rehearsals on the first Wednesday of each month are canceled until further notice.

Hattie Hartman Tithe Committee

It is hard to believe that we have been out of our church since March. While the cases of COVID-19 within our community have been much less than many other parts of the state, we must continue to have patience and vigilance to prevent the COVID-19 spread.

Over these months the Hattie Hardman Committee is still providing support to this community and beyond. Programs such as Habitat for Humanity, Milly's Pantry, Hope Kitchen, Living Well, One Great Hour of Sharing, Blanket Sunday and the 2cent Meal have been funded by this committee.

We wish you all good health. If you see a need or you have a need please let one of the committee members know.

News from the Higher Education Gifts Committee

The Edward L. Scherer Higher Education Gift fund is available for all members of the church who are going on for higher education. These gifts are given out twice a year, in September and in January. If you want to apply, you need to find an application form on the table in the back of the sanctuary, fill it out with as much information as possible, and mail it to Char Gillespie, 2888 Sherman Hollow, Penn Yan, NY 14527 or call at 315-536-7185 or email the application to: charlottegillespie41@gmail.com. Later in the year you will be asked to provide the committee with a copy of your official registration for courses for the upcoming semester. An application needs to be filled out each year you are in school. You may also contact any member of the committee: Chairman - Charlotte Gillespie; Student Coordinator - Judith Wilbert. She had served as a Deacon, participated in Bible Study, and always volunteered to help with church activities. Nancy had worked for many years caring for others as a nurse. She was an incredibly kind and thoughtful person. Her passing was not related to the Covid virus. Please keep the Burt family in your prayers. Cards of condolences may be sent to Jon and Sandy Burt, 11 Sheppard Street Penn Yan, NY 14527.

‘Our Town Rocks’ Events

Our August Community Calendar highlights the August 12th Summer Concert organized by the Yates Summer Concert Committee and the HOPE WALK starting at 6:30 PM in Seneca Street Park. There are extraordinary social distancing precautions being taken not only in order to comply with regulations but also to give attendees a feeling of safety and comfort - there will be plenty of room for all to attend and still maintain and adhere to social distancing requirements. This will be a very simple affair with a small musical group, no food or vending of any kind, no porta johns. It will however be wonderful to be in the park...listening to music and enjoying a summer evening.

As a prelude to Hope Walk another event this month is taking place at Outlaw Speedway on August 9th. Cruisin Meet and BBQ from 1-5 PM - all proceeds from this event will benefit Hope Walk.

Walking Can Be Fun!!!

The walking classes on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 9 AM – 10 AM have been canceled until further notice – we will keep you informed when we resume!!!

Per Capita

Our Per Capita for 2020 is $50 – if you give electronically, please tell Linda Bracht what is the amount and when you would like the church to take the per capita – she does not take it automatically.

What is Per Capita? In essence, per capita is a set amount of money (apportionment) per member that is paid to the Presbytery of Geneva, the Synod of the Northeast, and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Just as a train cannot move without an engine, our church councils require a power source to enable them to provide basic services which support our mutual mission as the Body of Christ. Per capita covers the ecclesiastical expenses of the denomination: the coordination and evaluation of mission, and the performance of ecclesiastical, legislative, and judicial functions. Per capita is an opportunity for all members of the Presbyterian church to participate equally, responsibly, and interdependently by sharing the organizational costs of the larger church.

What does the Book of Order say about Per Capita? “Each council above the session shall prepare a budget annually for its operating expenses, including administrative personnel, and may fund it with a per capita apportionment among the particular churches within its bounds. Presbyteries are responsible for raising their own funds and for the timely transmission of per capita funds to their respective synods and to General Assembly. Presbyteries may direct per capita apportionments to the sessions within their bounds but in no case, shall the authority of the session to direct its benevolences be comprised.” (G-3.0106)

How is per capita paid to the Synod and General Assembly in the Presbytery of Geneva? Different denominations have different ways of collecting revenue. Some receive a “head tax” of more than $50 per member. Others receive a certain percentage of a congregation’s receipts (up to 25%). In the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), per capita is an obligation of the Presbytery. The Presbytery of Geneva affirms the interdependent nature of our church by allocating funds in the annual operating budget for Presbytery, Synod, and General Assembly per capita regardless of income from the churches.

What are the consequences if a Church does not contribute to the Presbytery? The majority of congregations in the Presbytery generously contribute funds every year. When particular churches do not contribute, a greater burden of responsibility is placed on sister churches in the Presbytery to fund our mutual mission including our partnership with Synod and General Assembly. Per capita establishes a minimum level of financial participation in the vital work of our connectional church as the Body of Christ, strengthening the sense of community among all Presbyterians. It is a moral obligation we share with one another. Some sessions encourage each member to contribute per capita beyond regular giving to the church. For more information about per capita: <http://oga.pcusa.org/section/departments/per-capita/frequently-asked-questions/>

The Presbytery of Geneva is grateful for your congregation’s partnership in mission and ministry!

Have you considered electronic giving?

Several of our members have chosen this newer way of giving – how about you? If you wish to make church contributions automatically via electronic transfer, please request an authorization form from Linda Bracht (315-279-1545 or pjb29@cornell.edu).

Dear pastors and church educators,

Grace and peace to you all, from the staff of Camp Whitman!

With the widespread closure of churches over the past several months, we know that many of you have had to radically shift your thinking about what ministry looks and sounds like. We, too, have been trying to think creatively about ways that we can continue the ministry of Camp Whitman in these unique circumstances. To that end, we’ve designed three new programs that allow us to utilize our physical, human, and spiritual resources to meet the needs of campers and their families. We’re reaching out to you in the hope that some of the spiritual formation content that we have created can help you enrich your children’s and youth ministries at a local level.

Our Camp Reimagined program is an attempt to provide for all campers of all ages and abilities opportunities to grow -- spiritually, emotionally, socially, and intellectually -- in their own home environments, in their own patches of soil. Our theme is “Grow Where You’re Planted,” which is apropos for campers who cannot be physically present at Camp Whitman!

The program combines ecological education, faith formation, and tactile learning through on-demand videos and hands-on, mailed-to-home activities. Our program includes songs, games, arts and crafts projects, nature lessons, cooking tutorials, faith-based devotionals, and book read-a-louds.

We encourage you to consider ways in which this Camp Reimagined content could be used for your children's and youth ministries. These materials could be easily adapted for:

- Sunday School lessons
- Vacation Bible School
- Your local church's day camp
- Summer enrichment for your young members

The Camp Reimagined program can be done at each camper's own pace, on his/her/their own or with the assistance of caregivers. The materials are targeted for campers with an approximate reading level of Grades 4-5, but additional materials for more advanced or more basic readers can be created if the demand exists. We encourage you to reach out to us to discuss custom pricing options and the educational needs of your church community.

This summer, we all need to stay at home, growing where God has planted us. Please reach out to me at rebekafergussonlutz@gmail.com or (585) 404-6248 to brainstorm ways that we can make this summer one of growth and resilience for the children and youth of your community.

All the best,

Becka Fergusson-Lutz , Director, Camp Reimagined

Presbytery of Geneva
Letter from our Leadership Team from July 29th

Dear Friends in our Presbytery,

As has been typical of 2020, it has certainly been an interesting summer. In this region, we're certainly enjoying some nice weather, and I hope you're able to enjoy God's natural world at this time. While we haven't had a traditional camping season, we hear that Camp Recreate and other programs through Camp Whitman are going very well, and we give thanks.

The Leadership Team of the Presbytery has been monitoring how the pandemic and other events are going. In consultation with the intended host congregations, we'll be recommending to the General Council that our remaining Presbytery meetings of 2020 be conducted via Zoom. Meeting this way will allow our members and congregations to be comfortable in social distancing, while also making it possible for staff and special denominational guests (such as Rev. Dr. Diane Moffett, Executive Director of the Presbyterian Mission Agency, in November) to be present with us. We are finding that digital meetings can be meaningful, productive, and uplifting -- and we have even seen a significant increase in attendance! Upon Council's approval, please watch for future communications about the times and specific information for these meetings.

Our region remains in Phase IV, and while there have still been sporadic COVID-19 cases locally, we continue to do well as a region at controlling the infection rate. Much of this has been due to the care and success our communities have shown each other by socially distancing and masking. As a physician, I urge everyone to continue showing care and courtesy to everyone. Regionally, some congregations have chosen to reopen with carefully crafted social distancing plans, while others have not yet reopened their buildings; many continue to meet virtually and support each other in other ways. To any congregation that is considering reopening their buildings, I recommend studying the resources posted on our website.

As our region is somewhat reopened but also socially distanced, people must still exercise their own personal judgment and avoid those things they consider to be a risk. This is beneficial, as it has helped to reduce our infection rate in the area. Some people feel more comfortable with social situations (including in-person worship) than others do -- even with social distancing measures in place. This is why we have continued to promote having a virtual option for worship for congregations that have reopened. The question of whether or not someone feels safe in these situations does not just apply to parishioners: it also applies to our pastors. There can be questions about the role of pastoral leaders if they express discomfort with a plan for reopening. In addition, they often face questions about officiating additional services, such as funerals or weddings. These can be especially tricky, because unlike congregational worship services, the pastoral leaders may know only a small number of the attendees, and thus may not know how the gathering will manage or respect social distancing recommendations. We have heard many pastoral leaders feeling conflicted. They have devoted their lives to God and to their flock, but also have concerns that they might be putting themselves, their family members, or the attendees at risk of a potentially dangerous infection. There are also concerns that they could be viewed as avoiding their duties if they express their discomfort and say no. Fortunately, we have clear guidance from our Book of Order:

“God alone is Lord of the conscience, and hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are in anything contrary to his Word, or beside it, in matters of faith or worship.” (F-3.0101)

“That, while under the conviction of the above principle we think it necessary to make effectual provision that all who are admitted as teachers be sound in the faith, we also believe that there are truths and forms with respect to which men of good characters and principles may differ. And in all these we think it the duty both of private Christians and societies to exercise mutual forbearance toward each other.” (F-3.0105)

We must remember that “God alone is Lord of the conscience.” Neither those that participate nor those that refuse to participate in in-person worship or other gatherings are to be judged. Each Session can decide how and if they will provide facilities for in-person gatherings. Both individual members and pastoral leaders must be allowed to choose whether to participate in person or not based upon their personal needs and comfort. Every Session should make reasonable accommodation for pastoral voices that excuse themselves from participating in-person for in-person worship. The Leadership Team of the Presbytery of Geneva encourages all with differing viewpoints to support each other with love and grace. In 1 Corinthians 12:26, the Apostle Paul reminds us: “And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. Now you are the body of Christ, and individually members of it.” We have all suffered during this time of pandemic, and many are continuing to suffer, in several different ways. Let us show each other honor and concern, thinking about how we can minister to each other in love.

The Leadership Team is closely monitoring the status of the pandemic in our region. We will continue to meet and provide updates and guidance as things change. May God watch over us, and may we feel the hopeful presence of the Spirit as we serve with Christ’s love and mercy.
